

GENERAL DESCRIPTION AND APPLICATION

Designed to meet the requirements of SANS / IEC 60309-1+2, 1999 these moulded plugs and sockets are used in a wide range of commercial, industrial and mining applications e.g. factories, machine tools, mining equipment etc. in fact wherever a reliable supply of electricity is required. All units are compatible with other makes of same specification.

- The widest range of IEC 60309 - 1+2, 1999 standard moulded industrial plugs and sockets available on the market with rated currents of 16,32,63,125A and voltages from 24 to 500V.
- IP44 splashproof and IP67 watertight two-three-four and five-pole versions.
- The product range (plugs, wallsockets switched and unswitched, built-in outlets, appliance inlets, couplers) covers all installation requirements in industrial and agricultural facilities, construction and camp sites, etc.

AT A GLANCE

